

Nursery

We have been studying transport this half term.

We made boats and tested them to find out if they would sink or float.

We printed transport patterns. Do you like our trucks and trains?

We made models of different types of transport.

We like to play with the train track too.